

MESSAGE TO PARROTS

As all followers of the WORD perceive internally to be marked by the term SECTARIAN unjustly, many others would like to address their internal perception to all who see us in this way. Their opinions will be presented here in return to those who stagger in this world with blinkers on their eyes. We, on the contrary, who know the Word, evaluate them as "PARROTS", i.e. creatures who only are able to reproduce what they hear in the temple, eventually in the media, but they are not able to think independently, and are not even able to act against the current at all, the current that carries them to destruction. They even have no idea about it, even if they are robbed from all sides in their way of life...

In reality, their evaluation of us does not make us worry, but just the frailty of opponents of the Truth makes us much more worried because they cause harm mostly to themselves when they, in their ignorance, insult the highest knowledge that mankind has got in this Word, and then even insult also the MESSENGER of this WORD himself!

Verdict for many is told in this quotation:

"Question No. 49: It is written: 'But when the Son of Man will come to judge...' Is the Son of Man set as a judge?

Answer: Only God can judge! Son of Man brings His "WORD" once more. And in the Word lies the judgment then! How man receives the Word this time, such verdict man himself or herself bring to him or her. Every individual has free will from God's grace one more time. Of course, everyone has it for the last time! What stand man takes towards that, whether refusing or positive, such verdict will man bring to him or her by his or her own then, because separation will set in immediately through it. Waiting is refusing; because another waiting is not possible. Impossible is return from way which was chosen too. This time stands: either ... or! And at once! Hesitation, criticism and wanting to know it all better ended."

Let Christians try to compare this act to situation, how they themselves would see a man who would evaluate the Word of Jesus similarly. And both these Messages have the same origin. We evaluate the Word of Jesus just as high... but! We shall beware that there are many words mixed in this Word by those whom we called PHARISEES! These pharisees have been able to do it even with the Word of the Son of Man as well! This fact should direct us to become even more watchful.

Pharisees are the group which includes those who became opponents of the Truth only because of desire for power and profit. So it is a group of tricky and smart people who cause damage to the Truth out of their shrewdness. They are the people who brought up this group of "PARROTS" who do not have their own opinion, but only reproduce views of the above mentioned ones and in doing so, they stabilize Pharisees' power and position for their advantage, but unfortunately to their ('parrots group') own disadvantage.

This name describes their value in the most perfect way, even if someone rather calls them automats or robots. Any of these two names may sound more modern, but is less exact, as expressions "automat-robot" are artificial constructions, which are only manmade, but the term "parrot" is more fitting, as it characterizes creation of nature – of higher power, i.e. the same value as also the man is.

They have lost the real value only because of their own fault and thus they get rid of term - man! Man is a creature with his or her own free will to make decisions —but they gave it up!

INTENTION

Although some followers may not consider this intention to protect the Truth as welcome, it is appropriate to add that for us it is really necessary. And it was necessary! We do not address an actual person in our defense, not even now, but it is to be an answer from our side to attacks, which are addressed – to us ourselves.

If someone still thinks that our action is not totally in accordance with the Word and acting of the MESSENGER of this Word himself, the following answer might bring light to our action: 8.7. Fearing believers Question number 19:

Question: What shall I do, when I found in the Grail Message that, what I have already been searching for a long time, I am happy because of that, but my environment, which is oriented differently, has a fun of me now? Shall I surrender and do everything that is required from me and be concerned with it only inwardly in myself, secretly, in order to avoid every conflict?

Answer: People who are affected by the Truth, have unconditional duty also to stand up for it, otherwise are not worthy of gift of enlightenment. They shall not argue nor fight about, and they shall not force their conviction to the others, but they shall let all people to walk their own way calmly; but they must not tolerate others to turn them away from their way. They have every right to require from them that what they apply to the others. If they make a servant from them before others, then they deserve nothing else, than that the gift will be taken away from them. Christ has already warned against that, when he said: “Whoever denies me before men, him I will deny as well, so I will not know him.” How weak and miserable must look in eyes of the other, that man who pretends that he has found the Truth by his own conviction and then, in spite of that, he bows down to the other. Can such a person gain respect before the Truth in doing so? On the contrary, those who make fun of it and devalue it, will only be strengthen by doing so, because that what is valuable is put to their feet so that they could crush it down and befoul it. They themselves are even also turned aside from knowing the Truth as such, and respecting it. How totally different it is, when man who has found the Truth, decides to stand up unshakable and definitely against everything. He does it even sharply, if it does not go in any other way, in order just to keep the greatest jewel and protect others against a new guilt. Opponents can learn to respect something only in this way! Never by coward compliance. Many people give up what is holiest in them carelessly at once, just not to provoke any other small miserable man to anger, or not to injure him or her, and maybe also in order not to give their earthly calmness and comfort to be disturbed temporary.

Those are not the believers, who will be able to enter the realm of God one day, whom they deny in such manner. Then they have to go to those, whom they preferred and served them here on earth. Now those times are passed, when necessity of such hiding was considered as martyrdom. It cannot be excused by anything. Everyone shall fight for what he or she carries inwardly, otherwise he or she is not worthy of it! It will be taken away from him or her.

There does not exist anything higher than God! And everything else has to step aside to the background beside him. No man shall be forced to change his or her will, but from now on, every man who truly belongs to God's people shall be let in calm and peace in the future. Not even one can already touch them with dirty hand without being punished. He or she will be marked for it immediately and he or she will also die because of it. Every ridicule, and even more an act, will strike back in unbelievable speed and hardness to him or her, who acts so.

The people of the Lord will group themselves under his flag at last and will be secured. But only those who have courage to confess themselves to these people! No one else. We are already standing in the beginning of this hour!
